

ANACOSTIA.

News comes today from the country of an unfortunate accident which befell Mr. Joseph Gillott a day or two ago at the residence of his mill, Prince George's County. Md. He was engaged in clearing his ground and uprooting stumps with the aid of dynamite. One cartridge exploded too soon and Mr. Gillott approached it and was severely injured. What was wrong? As he lay within a few feet of the cartridge it exploded. Mr. Gillott's face was disfigured and it was thought that he had been fatally injured. Dr. R. A. Pyles was called and during a short time removed the mangled Gillott to a medical condition. The report this morning is that the wounded man, although not out of danger, is in a fair way to recover. Mr. Gillott was at one time a resident of Anacostia and is well and favorably known here.

The Saturday Night Club met last night at the office of the president, Col. H. S. Stow. Several new members were admitted. A good deal of routine business was transacted. It was decided to have a ball in April. Reports from the financial committee showed a reasonable amount in the treasury.

An exciting matter was caused this morning by the antics of a pair of car horses which escaped from their stable in the Anacostia and Potowmuk River Railroad Company's yards.

Mr. Boorman of Twining City sends a complaint to the police this morning of a stagnant water near his home.

Jos. Gwin was taken into custody yesterday by the police on the charge of having shot Lizzie Simon in the face with a ball from a pistol rifle.

The post office matter does not seem to be attracting much attention. It is understood that there are several applicants for the position, but those who are not are making in connection some small distinction to talk about the matter.

Real estate men declare that the prospects of Anacostia were never so bright as at present. They look for a spring rise in prices.

Lodging merchants say that trade is on the up grade.

Several new stores have been opened in Anacostia within a few days and are being fairly well patronized.

Mrs. Adelina Jackson of Filmore street is visiting friends in Washington. Mrs. Amelia Jackson is convalescing.

AMUSEMENTS.

HAWAII AND THE HAWAIIANS.—Tonight Mr. Edwin Browne will deliver a lecture on Hawaii and the Hawaiians at Metzger Music Hall.

Unusual interest attaches to these islands and the speaker has a wealth of material.

At this time, and also now, the Hawaiians live for years among us, and made excursions to all the islands in the group.
